Dowsing is nothing more or less than an energy management system.

In the quantum world that we live in, all possibilities and all potentials exist simultaneously. Dowsing gives us the tools to consciously shift things from their current state to a more desirable state. How do we do that? To put it simply we accomplish these shifts by clearly stated intention and by asking. Does it work every time? Of course not, but it works so often that it cannot be ignored.

Powerful techniques -Yet so simple anyone can do them.

What can dowsing be used for? The question might just as easily be what can't it be used for? We live in a world that is energy based, we are beings of energy in a world of energy and we are connected to everything. Dowsing can be used for the following:

- Emotional issues
- Health issues
- Balancing the spirit and body
- Removing negative energetic attachments
- Soul retrieval
- Creating safety for ourselves and others
- Changing non beneficial energy to beneficial energy
- Charging water
- Finding information
- Finding water, oil, precious substances, lost articles

This list is not exhaustive by any means but is an indicator of what dowsing can be used for, which is everything that affects our daily lives.

In the workshop you will learn how to set a dowsing program so that you can use all of the available dowsing tools (pendulum, bobber, L-rods, charts etc.) to assist you in your work. You will work through an extensive list of over 60 questions to balance yourself or others and help to shift your life from where it is to where you want to be. You will charge water to bring it back to its ideal life force and perfect state. Most water has very little or any life force left in it. Water also carries memory of every situation that has happened around it. When you consider the component of water in our bodies, now wonder we are not at our optimum state. Dowsing can change that for us.

Dowsing is a powerful tool to move your life to one of "No Limits."
